Mentoring: It’s a Two-Way Street!

Jean Ashley, MSBC, C-TAGME – University of Louisville, Louisville, KY

Avis Grainger, C-TAGME – Levine Children’s Hospital at Carolinas Medical Center, Charlotte, NC

Aimee’ Levy-Page – Our Lady of the Lake Regional Medical Center, Baton Rouge, LA
Successful Mentoring

- Give and take
- Listening sincerely
- Trust and mutual respect
- Helps both work smarter
- Honest feedback
- Beneficial to both
- Commitment of time and effort
Mentoring is Not:

- Power – Instead of Partnership
- Control – Instead of Cooperation
- Manipulation – Instead of Respect
- Unclear Goals with No Plan for Success
Mentoring: It’s a Two-Way Street!

No matter how much we accomplish, learn or evolve, we should never stop looking to others for guidance.
