

ACGME 2013 Pediatric Residency Educational Unit Requirements:

(This does not represent the comprehensive ACGME 2013 requirements for a residency program)

An educational unit should be a block (four weeks or one month) or a longitudinal experience

- An outpatient educational unit should be a minimum of 32 half-day sessions. (Detail)
- An inpatient educational unit should be a minimum of 200 hours

A minimum of 6 educational units of an individualized curriculum;

- The individualized curriculum must be determined by the learning needs and career plans of each resident and must be developed through the guidance of a faculty mentor. (Core)

A minimum of 10 educational units of inpatient care experiences, including: (Core)

- 5 units of inpatient pediatrics
- 2 units PICU
- 2 units NICU
- 1 unit newborn care

A minimum of 9 educational units of additional subspecialty experiences, including: (Core)

- 1 unit Adolescent
- 1 unit Developmental-behavioral pediatrics
- 4 units of key subspecialties
  - child abuse; (Core)
  - medical genetics; (Core)
  - pediatric allergy and immunology; (Core)
  - pediatric cardiology; (Core)
  - pediatric dermatology; (Core)
  - pediatric endocrinology; (Core)
  - pediatric gastroenterology; (Core)
  - pediatric hematology-oncology; (Core)
  - pediatric infectious diseases; (Core)
  - pediatric nephrology; (Core)
  - pediatric neurology; (Core)
  - pediatric pulmonology; (Core)
  - pediatric rheumatology. (Core)

Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education

- 3 additional educational units consisting of single subspecialties or combinations of subspecialties. (Core)
  - child and adolescent psychiatry;(Detail)
  - hospice and palliative medicine; (Detail)
  - neurodevelopmental disabilities; (Detail)
  - pediatric anesthesiology; (Detail)
  - pediatric dentistry; (Detail)
  - pediatric ophthalmology; (Detail)
  - pediatric orthopedic surgery; (Detail)
  - pediatric otolaryngology; (Detail)
  - pediatric rehabilitation medicine;(Detail)
  - pediatric radiology; (Detail)
  - pediatric surgery; (Detail)
  - sleep medicine; or, (Detail)
  - sports medicine. (Detail)

- A minimum of 5 educational units of ambulatory experiences, including: (Core)
  - 2 units community pediatrics and child advocacy
  - 3 units pediatric emergency medicine and acute illness (2 within the ED)
  - A minimum of 36 half-day sessions per year of a Pediatrics longitudinal outpatient experience. (Core)
    - The sessions must not be scheduled in fewer than 26 weeks per year. (Core)

Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education

Standard Requirements for Residency Units at A Glance

Emergency Medicine	Inpatient Pediatrics	Individualized Curriculum	Key Subspecialty
Emergency Medicine	Inpatient Pediatrics	Individualized Curriculum	Key Subspecialty
Emergency Medicine	Inpatient Pediatrics	Individualized Curriculum	Key Subspecialty
Community Pediatrics/Advocacy	Inpatient Pediatrics	Individualized Curriculum	Key Subspecialty
Community Pediatrics/Advocacy	Inpatient Pediatrics	Individualized Curriculum	Additional Subspecialty
Continuity Clinic	PICU	Individualized Curriculum	Additional subspecialty
Continuity Clinic	PICU		Additional subspecialty
Continuity Clinic	NICU		Adolescent
	NICU		Development
	Newborn

Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education

Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education