Associate Program Directors Luncheon

September 16, 2015

Megan Aylor, MD, Oregon Health Sciences University; Aisha Barber Davis, MD, Children's National Medical Center/George Washington University School of Medicine and Health Sciences; Lynn Gardner, MD, Emory University School of Medicine; Sara Multerer, MD, University of Louisville; Aditee Narayan, MD, MPH, Duke University Medical Center; Sue Poynter Wong, MD, Cincinnati Children’s Hospital Medical Center; Sydney Primis, MD, Carolinas Medical Center - Levine Children’s Hospital; Glenn Rosenbluth, MD, University of California, San Francisco; Daniel Schumacher, MD MEd, Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center.
APD Demographics

- Number of APD’s nearly doubled from 2006 to 2013
- Most are junior faculty
- Most have been in position < 5 years
- Broad range of responsibilities
Leadership

• Today’s facilitators
  • APD Executive Committee members
  • APD Grassroots Forum (Special Interest Group) Co-Chairs
  • Experienced APD’s from across the country

• Brief Introductions
Our Overall Goals

• Provide resources
  • Day to day job
  • Program growth
  • Personal professional development

• Represent APD interests
  • To the APPD Board of Directors
  • Meeting planning

• Inclusive engagement
  • Grassroots Forum
  • Task force membership and leadership
Resources

• APD List-serv
• APD Grassroots Forum
  • Spring Meeting
  • Interesting projects and ideas for all
• APD Handbook
  • Personal CV templates
  • APD Job description
  • Surviving recruitment, writing LOR’s
  • Mentoring trainees
  • And more!
APD Handbook
Future Directions

• APD Survey
  • Better characterize APD job structure
  • Optimize professional development needs
  • Please complete if you haven’t already!!

• Collaboration with Faculty and Professional Development Task Force
Today’s Session

• Q&A
• Small group discussion
• Topics
  • Job description
  • Negotiating time/activities
  • Mentorship/menteeship
  • Getting settled in your new role
  • Scholarship
  • How to get involved
  • Anything you have questions about!