

Your educational research network!

APPD LEARN is...

- Educational research network focused on Pediatrics education
(An AHRQ-registered PBRN)
- 145 participating programs
- Enterprise-quality data repository
- Longitudinal identifier codes for learners to permit studies over time and across projects
- Open to your program!

Recent achievements

- Papers
 - Medical Teacher
 - Academic Medicine x2
 - Academic Pediatrics
- Presentations at:
 - PAS (2 platforms!)
 - APPD (3, and a research award winner!)
 - AMEE (2)
 - AAMC Learn, Serve, Lead (panel)
 - AMSPDC (webinar)
- Data collection completed in two studies, continuing in two more

Engagement

Collaborative studies ongoing

- Pediatrics Milestones Assessment Collaborative (PMAC) - Module 2
Collaborators: ABP, NBME
- Assessing the Association between Entrustable Professional Activities (EPAs), Competencies, and Milestones in the Pediatric Subspecialties
Collaborators: CoPS, ABP

Studies completed

- Characteristics of Clinical Competency Committee (CCC) Member Milestone Level Assignments and Recommended Advancement Decisions
PI: Dan Schumacher, MD, MEd (Boston)
- Scholarly activity during residency: A national study of pediatric residents and program directors
PI: Erika Abramson, MD (Cornell)
- Defining key factors in burnout and resilience in pediatric residents and the relationship to performance
PIs: John Mahan, MD (Nationwide); Maneesh Batra, MD (Seattle)

Keep in touch with us!

Alan Schwartz, PhD
Network Director

Beth King, MPP
Project Manager

Marina Seyon
Program Assistant

learn@appd.org
<http://learn.appd.org>