Pediatric Resident Safety Council:
Fostering the Next Generation

Julie Adreth, MD, Allison Muller, MD, BS
Pediatric Residency Program, Children's National Medical Center, Washington, DC

Children's National

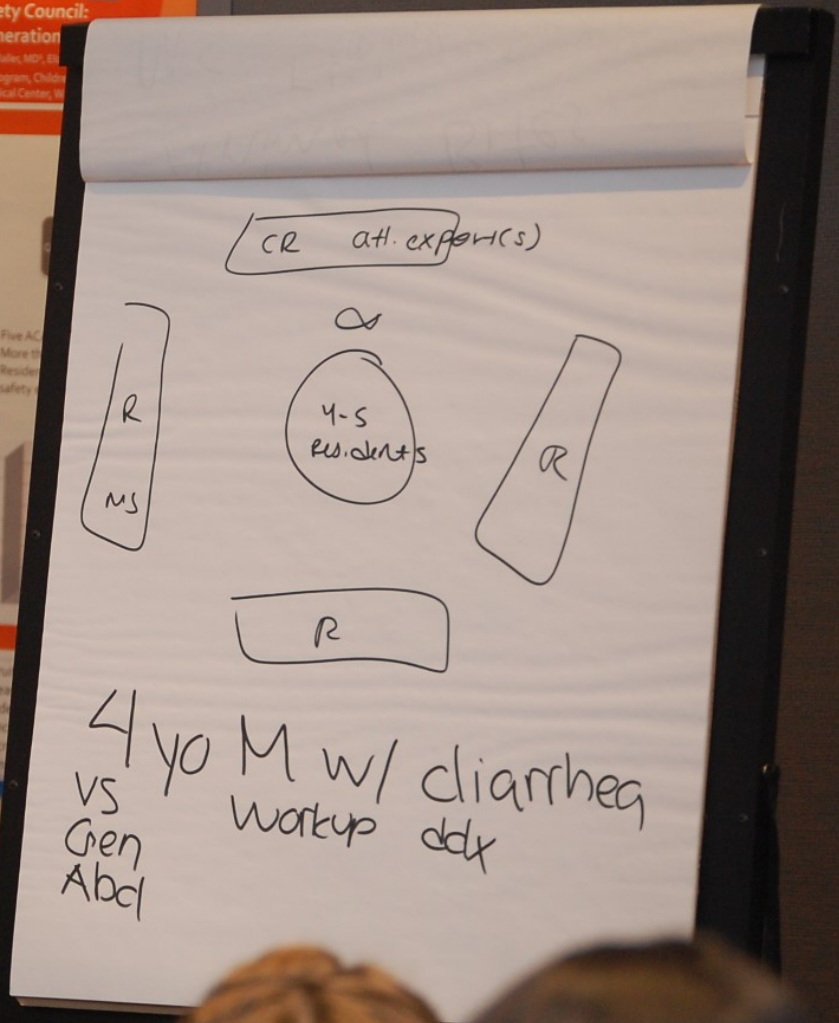

BACKGROUND

- The ACGME requires pediatric residents to "actively participate in patient safety systems and contribute to a culture of safety"
- Effective engagement is difficult given residents' clinical and education demands

METHODS

- Pediatric Residency Safety Council (PRSC) created in AY 2018
- Council structure revised in AY 2019 to refine group size and focus efforts on discreet resident-led safety projects
- Representation from all class years and residency/hospital leadership
 - 4 PL-1, 3 PL-2, 1 PL-3 residents
 - Chief residents
 - Faculty mentors
 - CNMC Safety Team
- Weekly "safety huddles"
 - Attended by chief residents and members of CNMC Patient Safety leadership
 - Share current projects, share safety threats, plan for PRSC presentation at upcoming Safety Committee meeting
 - Invited to participate in analyses whenever
