Pediatric Cardiology Fellowship Position
Children’s Hospital of Pittsburgh of UPMC

We have added a position to our Pediatric Cardiology Fellowship Program at Children’s Hospital of Pittsburgh of UPMC.

We are accepting applications for a first year fellow to begin July 7, 2018.

The fellowship program is a 3-year, ACGME-accredited program.

Fellows completing the program will meet the requirements for board certification in Pediatric Cardiology through the American Board of Pediatrics.

In order to be considered for an interview, please submit the following:

1. 3 letters of recommendation *
2. Current and updated CV
3. Personal statement
4. Transcript
5. USMLE scores or COMPLEX scores
6. ECFMG certification (if applicable)

* Letters of recommendation should be submitted directly to the program from the referee via mail or email.
The Heart Institute provides comprehensive pediatric and adult congenital cardiovascular services to the tri-state region and consists of 23 pediatric cardiologists, 4 pediatric cardiothoracic surgeons, 5 pediatric cardiac intensivists and 8 cardiology fellows along with 12 physician extenders and a staff of over 100. The Heart institute is currently ranked 14th in the US News and World report ranking for pediatric cardiac programs. The Cardiac surgical program is one of the top in the country, with a 3-star rating from Society of Thoracic Surgery (STS) in the most recent survey.

Children’s Hospital of Pittsburgh of UPMC has been named to U.S. News & World Report’s 2015-16 Honor Roll of Best Children’s Hospitals, one of only 10 hospitals in the nation to earn this distinction. Consistently voted one of America’s most livable cities, Pittsburgh is a great place for young adults and families alike.
