

APPD SHARE WAREHOUSE: FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. What is the APPD Share Warehouse?

APPD Share Warehouse is a platform for members to access resources shared by other members of APPD. Effective August 2022, Share Warehouse is now only an archive of documents that have been shared by members prior to August 2022.

2. How do I share new resources with APPD Members?

To share a new document or resource with APPD members, please post on APPD Connect at <https://connect.appd.org/home>. You will be asked to login using your APPD website login credentials (same credentials you use for www.appd.org).

Once on APPD Connect, select an online community to post your resource to. For example, to share with all APPD members go to the "General Discussion" online community. Select the "Library" tab, then "Create Entry" button. Enter details about your resource then once completed, select "Finish" to post your document.

3. Who has access to APPD Share Warehouse?

APPD Share Warehouse is restricted to only APPD members.

4. Who owns the intellectual property of materials in APPD Share Warehouse?

Authors maintain the ownership of their submitted materials. APPD Share Warehouse does not pursue the intellectual property of any materials it receives.