- We are a small program with 3 fellows, but we have 12 faculty members, resulting in a 4:1 faculty:fellow ratio
- Located 20 miles north of Chicago in Park Ridge, IL, we serve one of the most dynamic areas of the country
- Learn Pediatric ICU in a 19-bed medical unit, which received the highest acuity score in our VPS database cohort, and a 16-bed PCICU serving one of the busiest cardiac surgery programs in the Midwest
- We look forward to meeting you!

Mission Statement We strive to train self-motivated individuals to provide exemplary, evidence-based, compassionate critical care to children; and we aim to do so in a tailored manner that embraces your personal learning style.

Our goal is for our graduates to flourish in any setting, from academic centers to community-based practices.

Pediatric Critical Care at Johns Hopkins

Why Hopkins?

Our fellows use the words “opportunity,” “balance,” “education” and “camaraderie” to describe our fellowship. We ask, “What is your why? What brings you meaning and purpose as an intensivist?” And then we help you reach this.

Who are our patients?

We care for patients from Baltimore and entire state of Maryland, southern Pennsylvania, DC, and Northern Virginia, as well children referred nationally and internationally

Life in Baltimore – something for all

Enjoy a beautiful night on the harbor, catch an Orioles game, see a show at the Hippodrome Theater, take your family to the Science Center or Aquarium, spend quiet time at our many parks, join our foodies in all our unique Baltimore neighborhoods, or drive to the beach!

Who we are

- 15 Fellows
- 29 Faculty (with additional training in cardiology, neuro-critical care, anesthesia, ethics, global health, and palliative care)

You will learn in an extraordinary clinical environment within a well-structured educational program. We offer a unique service structure of days and nights with 12 hour shifts that lends itself to work-life balance and dedicated time for your academic work.

The clinical details

- 28-bed PICU, 12-bed PCICU
- Level 1 Trauma and Burn Center
- ECMO Platinum Center of Excellence
- Heart, liver, kidney, BMT Transplant
- Busy Transport Team

At Hopkins, the opportunities to grow and pursue your academic interest are boundless. Resources of the hospital and university allow fellows to pursue everything from global health to bench research to medical education to health equity and beyond.

Fellowship

The UAB Pediatric Critical Care Fellowship is a fully accredited three-year program that combines research and clinical experiences to prepare our trainees to become excellent intensivists who are ready to become successful in the academic setting. The 36-month curriculum includes 16 months clinical service, 20 months protected research time, and nine weeks of vacation. All fellows are credentialed in Deep Sedation by the end of the first year of training.

Clinical Services are housed in the Children's of Alabama Hospital, a 750,000 square foot, facility on the UAB health system's downtown Birmingham campus.

PICU Fellows rotate through both the Pediatric ICU as well as the Cardiac ICU

- 9 months spent in PICU, 4 months spent in CVICU
- 24-bed multispecialty, combined medical surgical PICU
- 20-bed combined cardiac medical/surgical CVICU
- Approximately 2,000 PICU admissions per year
- Approximately 250 cases of congenital heart disease that require cardiopulmonary bypass each year
- Trainees are exposed to the care of neonates and infants with very complex heart defects including extracorporeal membrane oxygenation and mechanical assist devices
- Opportunities for simulation research, translational research on sepsis, social determinants of health research as well as Global Health

Other elective rotations: Critical Care Transport, Burn, Adult Critical Care, Anesthesia, Pulmonary, Palliative Care, Cardiology/Cath lab services.
